

MUN Local Delegation Leadership

Permanent Representative (1 per delegation) - The Permanent Representative is a leadership position elected at a local delegation level. This position is replacing the position of the “delegation president”. The duties of the Permanent Representative at the local delegation level are at the discretion of the Lead Advisor. At conference responsibilities are as follows;

- Caucus with members of their delegation who are not affiliated with a country (NGO, IPC, ICJ) to help facilitate the casting of private ballots.
- Will have breakfast with Program Director (Friday & Saturday) during the Summit to provide feedback with how the conference is going and thoughts on improvements.
- Will cast the vote for SecGen election on behalf of the delegation.

Ambassador (1 per country assigned)- The Ambassador is a leadership position elected at a local delegation level. There will be one Ambassador for each country a delegation is representing. The duties of the Ambassador at the local delegation level are at the discretion of the Lead Advisor. At conference the duties are as follows;

- Carry Country Banner at Training Conference
- Carry Country Flag during the Parade of Nations
- Caucus with members of their delegation who are affiliated with a country (GA, EcoSoc, SC, OSG) to help facilitate the casting of private ballots.

Reporter (optional)- The reporter is a leadership position elected at a local delegation level. The reporters’ duties are to provide weekly progress reports on delegation current events to IPC staff. These reports should be short 1 paragraph summary on exciting things that are happening on a local delegation level.

Photographer (optional)- The photographer is a leadership position elected at a local delegation level. The photographer duties are to provide pictures of local delegation happenings to IPC staff. These pictures should capture the energy and excitement of the local delegation prior to, and at conferences.