

MUN Training Conference Advisor Duties

Description of Advisor Duties

Conference Patrol: Advisors assist the Deans in patrolling areas, shepherding delegates from point A to point B, keeping quiet in the sleeping areas, and just generally maintaining order.

Culinary Host/Hostess: Advisors walk around the eating area with trash bags (and gloves), collecting the delegate's trash, emptying any full trashcans and putting in new liners. Additionally, advisors will wipe down tables after the mealtime is over. Make sure you eat prior to starting your shift. Report to the orange vested staff member to receive your gloves and trash bags.

Social Activities: Advisors are asked to check-in with the orange vested staff member running the activities to see where they can help out.

Other Important Things

If your delegation is listed, please send at least one advisor to the duty. You can always send more than one. If you trade an advisor duty with another delegation, please keep in mind that if they don't show up, your delegation will still be held responsible.

If "everyone" is listed for an advisor duty, then we're asking ALL advisors to help out with a particular thing. This normally involves making sure everyone is heading in the right direction, helping to maintain order, or bringing Troy crayon drawings of Cookie Monster.
