

MUN Training Conference FAQ's

1. Why aren't we holding the Training Conference at Camp Roberts this year?
  - a. Camp Roberts had a last minute massive increase in the number of military that would be on the base at the same time. As such, there was no longer enough room to house us.
2. So, what are we doing now?
  - a. We are now holding two regional conferences that will be one day long.
    - i. The Southern California MUN Training Conference will be held on Saturday, March 16th from 8:30 AM to 8:30 PM. It will be held at a West LA school. We will be releasing the name of the school by tomorrow night's webinar.
    - ii. The Northern California MUN Training Conference will be held on Sunday, March 17th from 8:30 AM to 8:30 PM. It will be held at a school in the Palo Alto area. We will be releasing the name of the school by tomorrow night's webinar.
3. What meals, if any, will be provided?
  - a. We will be providing breakfast, lunch and dinner.
4. Will there be any kind of rebate due to the format change?
  - a. Our Board will be meeting to determine how much money will we refund delegations. The announcement will be made on the 11th.
5. How are elections going to work?
  - a. ECOSOC and GA will have co-Presidents this year. We will do this by electing a Northern and a Southern president and eliminating the VP position in both program organs. The co-Presidents will preside over session an equal amount of time.
6. Is there anything else I need to know?
  - a. Yes. Go to Tuesday night's (7:00 PM to 8:00 PM) webinar. We will have more information to give you and will be answering questions. You can find the link in this week's bulletin and in the resource section of our website.
